Of the Vermont newspapers, 13 favor Mr. Morrill for United States Senator, and 7 advocate the election of Mr. Poland.

It is reported that Mr. August Belmont, of New York, has at his disposal large sums of foreign capital, to be used in dividing the Republican party.

Miss Sallie H. Polk, daughter of the late Right Rev. Leonidas Polk, (General C. S. A.) was married on the first instant to Captain F. D. Blake, of Charleston, S. C.

The Viceroy of Egypt is interested in the Suez Canal to the amount of 100,000,000 francs, and his special envoy, Nubar Pasha, is in Paris trying to buy up the French shares.

Judge Story's son, William W. Story, now in Rome, is one of the most promising of the American sculptors. An English nobleman lately offered him 14,000 for one of his marbles.

Hon. A. W. Thayer, United States Consul at Trieste, is about to publish, in Berlin, the first volume of his "Life of Beethoven." Mr. Thayer has been engaged on the work for fifteen years.

Rev. Leonard Bacon, D. D., has accepted the professorship of Didactic Theology in Yale College. The position was formerly filled by the late Dr. Taylor, and since his decease Prof. Noah Porter has occupied it.

Prince Napoleon is "my good cousin" to the Emperor once more. The reconciliation is said to be complete. The Prince will resume the Presidency of Exposition, and will make no more republican speeches.

Both General Sherman, W. T. and T. W., were by chance together in St. Paul the other day. In the late war W. T. has gained sundry victories, and T. W. has lost a leg. There was a banquet to the two Generals, at which three hundred persons were present.

Tennyson is fifty-three years old, has a weak voice and shuffling gait, wears glasses most of the time, generally dresses in gray clothes, has a melancholy, ruminating voice, and wears, when his features are in repose, an expression of classical, habitual sadness.

Gen. Sherman, in a short speech made recently at Sandusky City, said that before the war commenced neither Grant, McPherson nor himself could have been chosen to the office of a constable. He further said that he once wrote a strong communication to the Governor of Ohio, recommending Phil Sheridan for the vacant colonelcy of a militia regiment, but a scheming politician secured the appointment.

THE LATEST VETO—THE ISSUE MADE UP.—President Johnson vetoed the amendatory Freedman's Bureau bill, and Congress immediately passed it over his veto, so that the humane and just provision made for the temporary protection and guidance of the freedmen is continued by law, instead of being left dependent upon Executive will. The new law is a modification of the bill vetoed in February last, and was carefully framed with a view to overcoming the President's early objections. What argument the President relies upon to sustain his last veto we are not told, but it is probable that he repeats the leading points of his first message, including a denial of the right and policy of legislation upon matters affecting the late Insurgent States while those States are unrepresented in Congress—an objection that applies as well to the original Freedmen's Bureau law, which he proposed to continue by his own authority, as the amendatory bills which he has refused to sign. It is fully evident that the President is indisposed to accommodate matters with Congress, while the promptness with which his last veto was overridden, and the unabated strength of the Union majority, prove the resolution of that body to maintain the stand it has taken in defence of its constitutional prerogatives. The issue between the Executive and Congress must therefore inevitably go to the people in the fall elections. It is simply whether the people's representatives in the national legislature assembled, and acting according to the spirit and letter of the Constitution, or the President, according to the promptings of his private will, shall dictate the policy of the Republic. There is a principle involved in this issue far exceeding in importance any question of mere expediency as to measures. Differences of opinion on the latter score may be reconciled and should be tolerated, within the limit of fidelity to pledges, but the former is a vitality that cannot be compromised, but must be settled one way or another by a popular verdict. After making the most charitable allowance for integrity of motives, it must be admitted by all except the zealous partisans of the President, that he has pushed his individual notions of policy against the authority of the law-making power to an extreme. His exercise of the veto power is of course constitutionally right, however wrong we may regard it in some instances on the ground of political policy or expediency, but he has carried his unfortunate difference with Congress into his almost daily speeches, and by his exercise of the appointing power, by the efforts of his friends to build up an opposition party, and through his extra official reflection upon the validity or justice of the constitutional amendments, has manifested a determination to carry his point at all hazards. The issue raised by the President is therefore no longer avoidable.—Bulletin.

THEY DENY THE RECORD.—Democrats have already commenced disputing the facts of history. Z. Montgomery, the great enemy of the Free School system, "dead headed" into some school of the city, where he was not known, probably, or welcome, and found Lossing's Juvenile History of the Rebellion. Naturally he looked for its allusions to his great favorite, Jeff. Davis, and saw the following:

"Jefferson Davis, the leader of the wicked rebellion, which had cost half a million precious lives, and thousands of millions of money, became an outlaw, and a heavy sum of money was offered for his arrest. He was finally captured in Georgia, while fleeing for shelter to a swamp, disguised as a woman in his wife's clothes!"

He was shocked and alarmed, and hurried to his musty old Copperhead sanctum to write that the minds of the youth of San Francisco are being poisoned by such "falsehoods." Democrats would much prefer to have Juvenile histories read thus: "Jefferson Davis, the Great President of the Southern Rebellion, for Liberty and the Constitution, General Chief of its grand and brave armies fighting in defense of their homes and families from the invading hordes of the Yankee Tyrant Lincoln, was obliged, by unfortunate circumstances, to retreat into Georgia, where he was overtaken by about sixty thousand Yankees, whom he bravely resisted, single handed and alone, over four hours, but was finally overpowered and taken into custody, since which time he has been kept in close confinement at Fortress Monroe. The latter is an insult and an indignity which has nearly broken his proud spirit, and made him a mere wreck of a great and noble man. His example, and melancholy fate, will teach little children that Republics are really ungrateful, and that the purest patriotism may often subject its possessor to the danger of the prison and the disgrace of the gallows."—S. F. Flag.

IMMIGRATION TO MISSOURI.—The Alta's St. Louis letter (June 22d) says:

If California could attract one half the immigration now pouring into Missouri, it would prove one of the grandest things for the Pacific shore that can be imagined. Families and colonies are now coming here from all parts of the north, who are noble accessions to any population. They bring horses, cattle, and means sufficient to settle comfortably on farms or in small towns, and they come with all the appearance of meaning to stay. All this tide of population is not spontaneous. It is the fruit of good, hard, honest work on the part of an enterprising board of Immigration, whose members have worked persistently this fall and winter, scattering all kinds tracts on the advantages of Missouri to the actual settlers broadcast over the land. Papers have been solicited to print these statistics and statements far and wide, so that there is hardly a State that does not every week swell the tide of population. Last week a colony of seventy Quakers came from North Carolina, and a month since thirty persons, comprising five families, came from South Carolina. But the bulk of the new comers are from New York and Ohio. Thousands of citizens of these States have entered Missouri, and are rebuilding her former houses and will soon begin to take part in her elections. No State ever received a better class of emigrants, and if California wishes to learn wisdom by this example, it is easily done. Work will do it.

THE DIPLOMATIC RUPTURE BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.—Though the telegraph keeps us informed of the principal events of the European war far in advance of the mails, the following from the London Times of the 12th June will not be uninteresting:

The diplomatic rupture between Prussia and Austria is now complete. Yesterday Count Karolyi, the Austrian Minister at Berlin, asked for his passports, and he will leave Berlin with all his legation to-day. Such a consummation was to be expected after the correspondence which has ensued between the two Governments during the last few years.

The dispatch of Count Bismarck went beyond every such document we have ever read in discourtesy, invective and provocation, and it has been replied to by Count Mensdorff in a more guarded style, but in language which shows offended pride and unconquered resolution. The Austrian Minister of Foreign Affairs makes a solemn protest against the proceedings in Holstein, and the statements by which it has been attempted to justify them. He declines all responsibility for the consequences, and declares that for months Prussia has taken up a position which endangered the former settlement. In conclusion, Count Mensdorff reserves to the Imperial Government the right of taking such steps as may be found necessary, since nothing remains for Austria but to defend her honor and guard her rights from contempt.

Viewed by the light shed on it by this dispatch, the recall of the Count Karolyi is an event of grave importance. It not only puts an end to negotiation, but even to communication. It would seem to show that Austria will not wait to be actually attacked, but looks upon the breach of the conventions as an act of war, which justifies her in retaliating at any point and with all her strength. Prussia was, it is said, about to send an ultimatum to Vienna. Of course a diplomatic rupture is not necessarily followed by war, and it is still possible that the two Powers may remain in that sullen state of inactive enmity called a suspension of relations. But it would be an excess of hopefulness to expect such forbearance in the present case.

The following is an extract from a speech delivered by Andrew Johnson at Washington on the 5th of April, 1865;

"The query naturally arises now, who has been engaged in this bloody opposition to the Government? The answer is, the man you have fed, clothed, educated, whose sole reputation and early honors were won under your colors; him we find with the sword given him by the Government and the country to defend them; him we find plunging it into his mother's bosom. [Voices from the crowd—'hang him, hang him!' You say hang him.' I know men in this country are hung if they murder one man, but what shall be done to him who tries to murder a nation? In Solon's code no law was written against parricide. The Athenians treated it as a crime none could be so base as to commit. Mr. Davis sought to kill his mother. [Voices—'Hang him, hang him!'] Yes, I say hang him twenty times.

Yet Johnson's Policy has not changed from that day to this!

JOHNSON'S IRISH "POLICY."—Robert Harvey, a worthy citizen of Yreka, a Union man and an Irishman, applied to the President for a Consulship or Commercial Agency at Belfast. A few days ago, says the Shasta Courier, his friend, Judge Garter, received the following reply from the Hon. John Bidwell:

WASHINGTON, (D. C.), June 4, 1866.

Judge E. Garter—My Dear Sir: Referring to your favor of February 6th last, in which you recommend Robert Harvey for a Consulship or Commercial Agency at Belfast, Ireland, I have to say that I have been constantly urging the matter, hoping there might be a vacancy, if not at Belfast then at some other Irish port. But there are no vacancies in Ireland, and Seward tell me that if there were, he could not appoint any one of Irish birth or sympathy.

KILLING NEGROES.—At the recent Circuit Court in Lawrence county, (Miss.) two men, Hawkins and Pringle, charged with killing some negroes on the Barrett plantation, were found guilty of murder. One, Matthews was acquitted. The Jackson Clarion says a motion was made for a new trial, but it was thought it would be overruled.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 26, 1866

Gerrit Smith's Letter to Chief Justice Chase

Gerrit Smith has recently written a letter to Chief Justice Chase, containing an argument against the trial of Jeff Davis. This argument is chiefly remarkable from the fact that it has been endorsed by the entire copperhead party of the North and the whole rebel population of the South. Gerrit Smith, an original Abolitionist and their ancient enemy, has, with a bound, placed himself in the front rank of their party as their chosen friend. His plea for the disculpation of Davis is somewhat peculiar, and a portion of it militates strongly against a part of the Democratic creed. For example, the Democracy insist that the rebel States never were out of the Union. Gerrit Smith argues that during the rebellion and at its close the South was a wholly independent nation, that her people owed no allegiance to the United States and were therefore not guilty of treason. This doctrine, though sorting ill with that of the indestructibility of the Union, is endorsed unequivocally by the copperheads. The whole letter is sicklied over with that spurious philanthropism and mawkish sentimentality which characterizes that class of moon struck reformers who believe in the innate goodness of human nature, who would abolish capital punishment and indeed punishment of all kinds, and who are continually looking for the advent of that millennial period when the whole race of mankind will be transformed at once into saints or angels. Under such a view there is no such thing as crime. Human nature is idealized, and common sense and plain practical facts are thrown to the winds.

Not only does Gerrit Smith assume that the late war was one that between two independent nations, and that resistance to the Government was therefore not treason, but he also asserts, as a sequence of these propositions, that the Government has no right to punish any one concerned in the rebellion. He says that the South has been punished severely enough by the war without subjecting her people to further punishment by process of law. The truth is, the South has suffered little more by war than the North. The waste of life has been equally as great among the patriotic people of the North as among the rebels of the South. When people commiserate the rebellious South for its sufferings by war, they seem to forget that the Northern people who made unparalled sacrifices to sustain the Government, are entitled to equal sympathy for their losses. Surely loyalty deserves as much consideration and sympathy for its sacrifices as treason.

The climax of Gerrit Smith's mock humanitarianism is reached in the proposition he makes to exempt the South, because she is poor, from the payment of national taxes for five or ten years! He speaks of this as something due the South from the North as a manifestation of "fraternal love." This is philanthropy sublimated. The South made war on the Union and wasted her wealth in the endeavor to destroy it. Her wicked treason ruined her and entailed upon the North a loss of life and property which is frightful to estimate. But because the South has become poor in the attempt to destroy the Government, it is now proposed to save her from the imposition of taxes and make the North pay the the price of her treason and wickedness! This monstrous proposition is hailed with delight by the Democracy, and Gerrit Smith is at once advanced by them to the position of a profound political philosopher and wise statesman. After reading his letter through and observing how he palliates treason and even proposes to offer a premium for it, no one will wonder that he receives the unqualified aprobation of the whole Democratic party. No one will be surprised that the copperheads praise the author so unreservedly. Whoever forgets that Southern treason is a crime will be sure to receive their praise.

"K. G. C's." vs. LOYAL LEAGUES.—Referring to the "Loyal Leagues" that were organized throughout the North in the time of the rebellion, Beriah Brown of the Herald says:

> There was no excuse for a secret organization to sustain the Government or to enforce the laws.

Certainly not—in your opinion, since you saw "no excuse" for sustaining the Government or enforcing the laws by any method whatever. But though you could see "no excuse for a secret organization to sustain the Government," you could easily perceive the necessity of a secret organization to overthrow it. Inconsistent as it may appear, it is nevertheless true that the author of the vehement declamation that the Herald so much abounds in against Loyal Leagues, is the person who was "head-center" of the California branch of the great treasonable secret organization which existed throughout the entire North during the rebellion. The following letters which were picked up among the debris of Beriah Brown's office in San Francisco a little more than a year ago, will serve to illustrate his hostility to secret political organizations.

> GRASS VALLEY, Aug 22d, 1864
>
> BERIAH BROWN, Esq.—Dear Sir: We are very anxious up here that you should send us along the 57 arrangements about which I wrote you a week ago. Also, send a copy of the alphabet. We are organizing in various parts of the country and will soon be able to make a good report to you. It would be well to continue my power to organize. Do I still have authority? I think we can raise hundreds. Please answer soon. Yours,
>
> J. R. RIDGE
>
> SACRAMENTO, Sept 22d, 1864
>
> BERIAH BROWN, Esq.—Dear Sir: Parties in both Placer and El Dorado counties desire that councils of the 57 shall be instituted in those counties, and have applied to me to institute them. If you will authorize me to do so, I will visit those counties for that purpose. Should you give me the authority, send me at the same time several copies of the constitution, instructions, keys etc.
>
> Yours truly, A. A. BENNETT

The general conclusion from all this is that some people believe and act on the principle that a secret organization to preserve the Government is dangerous to liberty and wrong every way, while a secret organization to subvert it is not only unquestionably right, but is also a highly laudable proceeding.

"WHICH IS THE TRUE PICTURE?"—The Herald sees a manifest inconsistency between the account published in this paper a few days ago of the manner in which Jeff. Davis was ironed immediately after his capture, and the description we gave a short time after of a picture which appeared in a late number of Harper's Weekly, representing the great leader of the Democracy in his apartments at Fortress Monroe, "surrounded by every luxury and ministered to with more than oriental servility." The two accounts are not in the least degree inconsistent. Jeff Davis was put in irons by order of President Johnson at a time when that functionary professed to believe that the rebel leader was a felon who ought to be punished, but was transferred to his present luxurious quarters after the late wonderful metamorphosis of 'Moses.' The change in Jeff. Davis' condition is attributable to Johnson's "change of base" from the Union to the copperhead party, and exactly illustrates the "Moses" idea of 'making treason odious.' Both the pictures which the Herald notices are true, and if they are unlike let it ask the "noble tribune" of the White House to reconcile them.

The Idaho Statesman notices the arrival at Canyon creek of several families with wagons, en route for the "States" overland. We think it probable that the male members of this expedition are some of the "butternuts" who left Oregon the day after our late election on their return to Missouri, where, according to O'Meara, they performed "meritorious service" under Price during the rebellion. The last service that they performed in that line was to vote the Democratic ticket in Oregon.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2?—The Eastern line is still silent beyond Laramie. A meeting of the members of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday for the purpose of forming a committee to cooperate with the New York committee in securing a creditable representation at the World's Fair in Paris and particularly with a view to collecting specimens of agricultural and mineral products of the Pacific States for exhibition thereat.

A letter from [illegible] states that President Juarez had arrived at Chihuahua June 17th, and was received with the utmost enthusiasm.

A San Diego, Cal., letter of July 16th says Maj.-Gen. [illegible], of the Mexican army, had arrived there with some followers.

Donald Bruce, printer, has brought suit against F. H. O'Brien & Co., gas fitters, for damages caused by gas explosion on the 12th of May last. Mr. Bruce claims $5,000. He alleges that he was burned and otherwise injured. He attributes the explosion to the carelessness of the gas fitters in putting gas pipes into his printing office.

The Union County Convention meets this evening, and to this fact may be attributed the unusual rushing, running to and fro, the button-holing and "buzzing" of delegates to the Convention and the small knots of men engaged in earnest discussion on Montgomery street corners.

The great rush appears to be for the Clerk's, Collector's and all the other offices as relatively [illegible] in the desire of numerous candidates to protect the property of their fellow citizens. The only question of reconstruction now occupying the public mind is in connection with the Police Department. Judging from the excitement in the matter one would suppose that this was the only important office to be filled.

Judge Pratt has ordered the verdict in favor of [illegible] Theatre for $1,000 and F. Hilcox for $2,808 against R. B. Woods and [illegible] money stolen from the What Cheer House safe be made payable in gold coin. The testimony on the trial showed that the deposits were made in coin, but the verdict of the jury did not specify the kind of currency which should be paid.

The Donna brothers will be arraigned before Judge Pratt to plead to their indictment for murder, on Tuesday next.

The ship Silas Greenman 50 days from Hong Kong, arrived this morning.

Hon. R. M. Pennie is appointed acting Colonial Secretary for Hong Kong.

The Castle ship Iolda was destroyed by fire off the Java coast on the 16th of April. A mutiny had previously occurred, and ten men had been flogged and put in irons. The Chief Mate, one apprentice, and 40 emigrants were lost.

The British ship Denmark from London to Hong Kong stranded on the Yashar shores the 24th of May. It is not known whether the crew were saved or not.

The expedition against the pirates on the West coast by the English gunboats has been very successful. On arriving at Kin-len, the rendezvous of the pirates, the people having fled, the Chinese soldiers went ashore and burned the deserted houses. The expedition then penetrated to Namoan, where Lieutenant Mannering landed with a small force and approached the village cautiously, suddenly a masked battery of twelve guns opened on him, but, after a sharp engagement, he silenced it and took it. This is about the first time the pirates have been successfully met in their own haunts.

The Hong Kong press of May 31st, reports that the bark Labelle, which cleared from here January 2d, was wrecked. She was cleared from here by Macondray & Co. All the treasure, amounting to $33,043 was saved and buried by the Captain on the island.

The Bremen bark Belle, under command of Captain Tobias, on the passage from San Francisco to Hong Kong, with a cargo valued at over $300,000, was cast away on the 4th of March, on an uninhabited and dangerous reef called Wake Island. The passengers and crew remained on the boat during the night, the sea breaking fearfully over the wreck all the while. The passengers and crew landed with great difficulty through the breakers. The following day, after an ineffectual search for water, and much privation, it became imperative to take to the boats and endeavor to reach the nearest habitable island, friendly disposed to defenseless shipwrecked people.

Several days were spent in finding a suitable and safe point for departure, the breakers increasing about the island which appeared to be about twenty miles in circumference. Taking such provisions and water as were saved from the wreck, the passengers were transferred to the ship's long boat in charge of the first mate, the Captain preferring his gig, and on the 27th of March both boats sailed for the Ladrone or Mariana Island. Twenty-two persons, with provisions in an open boat but 22 feet in length to undertake a voyage of 1,400 miles, subject to occasional storms, calms and a tropical sun, short rations, and an ocean studded with hidden rocks and coral reefs, gave but poor hope of arriving at the port with life. The Captain, with 8 persons in a boat of 20 feet in length, leaving at the same time, has not been heard from, and unless picked up by some chance vessel, must have been swamped, as a heavy cross sea was met with shortly after leaving the island. This, it is said, was the third vessel the Captain was so unfortunate as to lose within a few years. Among the passengers was Madame Anna Bishop, Miss Phelan, Mr. Schultz, and Charles Lascelles, of the English opera troupe, and Eugene M. Van Reed, of Kanagawa. A schooner has been chartered and sent to search for the missing boat among the islands to the northward and to return to Wake Island and recover the large amount of treasure which had been saved and buried.

FROM THE NORTH.

Man Drowned—Shipping News,

SEATTLE, July 25.—A Hollander, known by the name of Richard Long, about 30 years old, while working in the boom at Port Blakely, mills on the 22d instant fell from a log into the water. Several persons rushed to his assistance and succeeded in getting him to the top of the water, when the log on which they were standing turned and threw them into the water. They escaped but Long was drowned. His remains were brought here yesterday and buried in the cemetery.

The English ship Belmont now loading with spars at Utsalady Mills, will sail in a few days for France. The brig Lucas sailed from Utsalady Mills on the 18th, for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber.

LATE EASTERN NEWS.

The following important Eastern news items we clip from the San Francisco papers—not having been telegraphed here:

CHICAGO, July 17.—Washington special dispatches say that within three hours after the receipt of the President's veto message in the House, the Freedmen's Bureau Bill had triumphantly passed both Houses of Congress, and was proclaimed by Mr. Foster as the law of the land. The vote in the House was 103 to 33, and in the Senate 33 against 12.

The Senate was principally occupied yesterday with the Northern Pacific Railroad Bill, upon which no action was reached. Mr. Higby, in the House, introduced a bill to legalize the occupation of public mineral lands and to extend the right of pre-emption, which was read twice, and referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Senator Doolittle having written a letter to Maj.-Gen. Dix, asking his endorsement of the Philadelphia Convention, the General replied in a short way, in which he says the principles set down in the call meet his full approbation and he will do all in his power to make the Convention a success.

Freeman Clark, the Controller of the Currency, has resigned, to take effect next Monday.

Mr. Raymond's position is thus stated in the New York Times, as being his own language as used in the Congressional caucus when the Philadelphia Convention question was first introduced: "He believed it would have a good effect in nationalizing the Union party, and placing its action upon a broader basis. He had never concealed his convictions that unless the party be nationalized and liberalized, it would be short-lived, and the power would pass from its hands to those of its opponents, and had therefore looked with favor on the call for the Convention. Whenever he saw reason to change his opinion as to its object and effects he should act accordingly. If it should become apparent that it would tend to break up the Union party, and throw the power of the South into the hands of rebels and Copperheads neither the Times nor its editor would support it, but a newspaper is compelled to discuss all phases of public affairs as they arise from day to day, without waiting for subsequent developments."

The New York Daily News, the Northern organ of those who hold to the right of secession remarked a few days ago:

> That question (of secession) has been submitted to the arbitrament of arms, and so far as the mere influences of physical force can determine it, it has, for the time being, been determined. The South accepts the result, in respect to its present practical application, but that acceptance does not imply any abandonment, in thought, of the principle upon which the secession movement was founded.

It subsequently added:

> If the battle in the future in the legislative halls that battle that the radicals so much fear and deprecate should be ... ; it will prove that in repelling there is a power mightier than the sword to vindicate the right.

In like manner Davis, Stephens and many other Southern men assert constantly that the question for which they went to war is not yet decided, but will now be taken from the battlefield to Congress.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Jas S. Reynolds, editor of the Boise Statesman, called on us yesterday. Mr. R. says of political matters in Idaho, that the Union party is making a gallant fight and if they do not win the battle in August, they will reduce the rebel majority so considerably as to be tantamount to a victory.

The opposition steamer Moses Taylor to leave San Francisco, August 10th, will take passengers for New York via Nicaragua, at the following rates: 1st cabin, $100 00, 2d cabin, $60 00, steerage, $45 00. At these rates anybody who will, can go home.

SOUTH.—The San Francisco Bulletin is [illegible] speaking of the resignation of Postmaster Dennison, says:

> Dennison supported the President in his original policy with Congress, but [illegible] him out of the party which had elected him and which he rightly contends is [illegible] the support [illegible] the resignation on the grounds [illegible] party, and that instead of fighting [illegible] members of that party within the organization, [illegible] in January and February and March he meant to [illegible] he intends to fight them out in a rival or [illegible].

PICTURES INDEED.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 59 First street, continue to supply the public demand for their SPLENDID PHOTOGRAPHS. While the specimens at this GALLERY bear critical examination, they always attract even the casual observer.

Joshua R. Giddings, J. T. Headley, J. S. C. Abbott, Lossing and Horace Greeley have all published the first parts of a history of the war. But of these, no one has been so successful as that of Mr. Greeley, nor is so worthy the same attention.—New York Daily News.

CAUTION!

TO DEALERS IN

INDIA RUBBER AND GUTTA PERCHA

COMBS!

OFFICE OF THE INDIA RUBBER COMB CO.,
New York, January 2, 1866.

THE HARD RUBBER PATENTS OF NELSON Goodyear were extended, May 6, 1865, for seven years by the United States Commissioner of Patents.

By final decree of the United States Circuit Court, rendered October 27, 1862, those patents were fully sustained, and all previous and subsequent infringers have been put under injunction in each Circuit in the United States where suits have been brought. In every case costs and damages have been awarded. Over two hundred injunctions against merchants and dealers in various parts of the country, have been granted by the United States Courts. It is the intention of this Company to protect its rights by prosecuting with the utmost vigor of the law all infringers, whether manufacturers or dealers, large or small. This Company has the sole privilege of manufacturing India Rubber and Gutta Percha Combs, and again cautions the Trade and the public against purchasing, or selling any Combs not having its copyrighted label and licensed stamp:

I. R. Comb Co., Goodyear's Patent, May 6, 1851.

All Combs not thus stamped are illegal, and their sale is an infringement of the exclusive right of this Company and will be stopped by the Courts, and the parties selling them—no matter how innocently or ignorantly they err—will be prosecuted for damages. Honest merchants can avoid all trouble by purchasing only of responsible houses and refusing to buy Combs not stamped as above. The most casual inspection of the Combs will show whether they are stamped or not.

The customers of the India Rubber Comb Company and all dealers in Combs, are particularly requested to inform the undersigned attorneys of parties who are infringing Combs. Any expense incurred in thus bringing infringers to our notice will be repaid.

SUMMER RESORT.—[illegible] has just returned from the sea shore, or more properly speaking Clatsop Plains, where he has been stopping for some time with his family. To residents of Portland and invalids generally this is a resort of interest. The steamer J. H. Couch leaves here every Monday and Friday morning for Astoria. A safe and commodious small boat goes regularly every day to Skipanon Landing, where may be found a neat and comfortable hack kept by Mr. Peas. This is distant from Astoria about [illegible] miles. From this point you can take a seat in a spring wagon and ride to the summer House—fourteen [illegible] a delightful road—or if you have your own conveyance you can drive on the beach at low tide. This house is kept by Mr. Tattle, who [illegible] the delicacies of the season at hand in [illegible] It is situated about five hundred yards from the beach, behind a beautiful forest, and is protected from the heavy gales by a heavy growth of timber. The thermometrical changes of air are slight, the climate being neither cold nor hot. Persons who have spent weeks there have gained wonderfully in weight and appearance. From the information furnished us by Capt. [illegible] many of the [illegible] invalids who are suffering from general debility [illegible] long residence in the mountains and valleys, would be greatly benefited by a visit to this place. [illegible] speak in the most delighted manner of their stay there and of the table prepared by Mrs. Clutch, who has charge of the cuisine. Mr. Th[illegible] and others return to the sea [illegible]

ARRIVAL OF THE CHIEF.—Don't be alarmed, dear reader, this is not a political [illegible] Yesterday, soon after the arrival of the Orif[illegible] [illegible] driving rapidly along Front street, [illegible] suddenly halt [illegible] in front of the Occidental [illegible] There was that [illegible] the vehicle [illegible] [illegible] pearls [illegible] something of that sort. [illegible] [illegible] driver [illegible] all disappeared in a cloud of dust. After this issue, the writer will pass over to the "chief" his right, title and interest in the seat and [illegible] (as editor of the Sanctum) [illegible] signing with pleasure the perplexing and tedious duties of a reporter, at the same time thanking all those who have assisted him to "matters and things" of public interest.

REAPER AND MOWER.—A new invention called the "Kirby Reaper and Mower," with the new patent raker attached, has arrived here from New York. It is manufactured by D. M. Osborne & Co., and can be seen at the hardware store of Capt. Hopkins on Front street. It was recently tried at Menlo Park, San Mateo Co., Calif., with complete success. Capt. Hopkins will be glad to explain it to visitors, or to those wishing to purchase.

SAN FRANCISCO DIRECTORY.—From the publisher, Henry G. Langley, Esq., we have received a copy of the San Francisco Directory for 1866. It is a valuable compendium of everything pertaining to the city proper, as well as a complete summary embracing the county itself. We have not space to give even an abstract of its contents, but will say that it bears out the reputation it has heretofore sustained for accuracy and reliability.

COMMERCIAL.—The bark Jane A. Falkinburg, Captain Wm. Bunwell, was ready for sea on Tuesday evening and would soon leave Astoria for Honolulu with a full cargo. The bark J. A. Eldridge, Capt. Abbott, was ready to also take her departure last evening, full, for the same destination. The schooner J. C. Champ, on Capt. Quick, left this port yesterday for Tillamook, with a full freight.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme, Capt. Francis Connor, is advertised to sail on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. The California, Oregon and Mexico Company, owners of this steamer, have opened an office in Sayler's building, No. 72 Front street, and appointed ex-Purser Weidler Agent. A trip to San Francisco and back on the Oriflamme, part of which was accomplished in very severe weather, proved that the ship is entitled to all praise that has been given in her behalf.

RECORDER'S COURT.—HOFFMAN J.—The following cases came up yesterday: City vs. Henry Gauty, misdemeanor, compromised under Sec. 318, criminal code. State vs. Louis Ciulad, for defacing a house with coal tar; tried, and decision deferred until this morning. Case of liquor dealers selling without license was dismissed by payment of costs. These were the cases that were decided by Judge Shattuck in favor of the city.

ACCIDENT.—A team of horses driven by Mr. Bean, Mate of the bark Jane A. Falkinburg, yesterday ran away near the White House on the McAdamized road, which resulted in fracturing the shoulder blade of Mr. Bean, bruising his head badly, and somewhat injuring a lady who was riding with him. They were doing as well as could be expected, under the treatment of Dr. Watkins.

ARRIVAL OF THE ORIFLAMME.—The steamship Oriflamme, Capt. Connor, arrived yesterday from San Francisco, at 3½ o'clock with 60 cabin and 20 steerage passengers, and 3,282 packages assorted merchandise. The memoranda, passenger and freight list will be found in another column.

FALSE ALARM.—A little past 12 o'clock last night the alarm of fire was given, which brought the Fire Department out on the double quick. It was a false alarm.

FROM IDAHO

The following items are from the Idaho [illegible] of the 14th:

THE GAMBRINUS LODE.

E. G. Rosenbaum, of this city, has purchased the ten stamp Quartz Mill lately placed on the eastern extension of the Gambrinus Lode by Lambing and Bally. He is now the sole owner of the mill and intends to keep the stamps at work steadily triturating ores from the Gambrinus and Juniata leads, as he owns three-fourths of each of those leads.

The eastern extension of the Gambrinus—known as Rosenbaum's Gambrinus—embraces two thousand feet adjoining the [illegible] of the Harris [illegible] and the Juniata embraces [illegible] hundred feet just north of the Gambrinus and running parallel with it.

He has ten men at the present time [illegible] tunnel to tap the Juniata, and will next week commence to run another tunnel to strike the Gambrinus. The mill is located at the Gambrinus ledge, and the rock from the Juniata is hauled to the mill by a yoke of oxen and a cart a short distance and on an easy grade. He intends to push the work on both ledges with energy and perseverance, as he is determined to give that part of the mountain a right and thorough searching, and bring to light the precious ores there secreted, and demonstrate to a certainty whether it will pay to keep a mill running on Boise county quartz.

THE POORMAN.

We learn from Judge Roseborough, who has just returned from Owyhee, that [illegible] [illegible] court in Owyhee county. All that had been done in the case up to the time of the Judge's leaving was [illegible] [illegible] both parties [illegible] [illegible] law"—there [illegible] [illegible] think they might be [illegible] with force. The mining belligerents [illegible] field on which to exercise [illegible] called out to fight [illegible] parties having started [illegible] an opportunity [illegible] The case will probably [illegible]

[We learn from a gentleman [illegible] from Owyhee that the difficulties [illegible] be arranged that work will [illegible] definite [illegible] that [illegible] satisfactorily.—[illegible]

[illegible]

This aged individual still exists [illegible] off a large amount [illegible] Among other [illegible] [illegible] meeting on last Saturday night [illegible] [illegible] Can't learn any [illegible] by the curiosity [illegible] all the [illegible] occasion [illegible] respect will be extended to him.

A COUGH, COLD, OR SORE THROAT REQUIRES IMMEDIATE attention, as neglect oftentimes results in an incurable lung disease. Brown's Bronchial Troches are a simple remedy and will almost invariably give immediate relief.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. But how? you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play,
And regulate from day to day
Each organ all in Nature's plan
Draws on its food, the vital man.
And like a watch that's kept in time,
By constant care, with railroad thine
The system acts, and strength renew
As bitter by the spirits [illegible]
How you require [illegible] done?
This Victory [illegible] Blessing [illegible] won,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, we reply,
Is HEALTH's [illegible]

As a means of generating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating its every function, if the vital organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation either of the past or the present time has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors that prepare
That fever taint the sky and air;
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods, or marshy ground.
If sedentary, till you ply
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent,
And fifty sound to relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters me—of route
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded workshops and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employment, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspeptic pangs that rack and grind
The body and depress the mind;
Aches that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains;
"Nerves" which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those fell ills
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that came the
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail.
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, Calif. rain bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mould,
To young and middle aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

The Mineral Lands

The following is the full text of Senator Stewart's bill to regulate the occupation of mineral lands

Section 1 Be it enacted That the mineral lands of the public domain, both surveyed and unsurveyed, are hereby declared to be free and open for exploration and occupation by all citizens of the United States, and all who have declared their intention to become citizens, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and subject also to the local customs or rules of miners in the several mining districts so far as the same may not be in conflict with the laws of the United States

Sec 2 And be it further enacted That whenever any person or association of persons claim a vein or lode of quartz or other rock in a place bearing gold, silver, cinnabar or copper, having previously occupied and improved the same according to the local custom and rules of miners in the district where the same is situated, and having expended in actual labor and improvements thereon an amount not less than $1 000 and in regard to whose possession there is no controversy or opposing claim, it shall and may be lawful for said claimant or association of claimants to file in the local land office a plat of the same so extended laterally or otherwise as to conform to the local laws, customs and rules of miners, and to enter such tract and receive a patent therefor granting such mine, together with the right to follow said vein or lode, with its dips, angles and variations, to any depth, although it may enter the land adjoining, which land adjoining shall be sold subject to this condition and upon the further indefeasible condition that the owners and occupants of the mine so appropriated and held shall pay into the Treasury of the United States in each and every year, until the National debt shall have been paid, three per cent of the net product of said mine, vein or lode which shall be in lieu of the stamp tax now levied upon bullion extracted from the public domain

Sec 3 And be it further enacted That upon the filing of the plat and survey as provided in the second section of this act, the register of the land office shall publish a notice of the same in a newspaper published nearest the location of said claim and shall also post such notice in his office for the period of 90 days, and after the expiration of said period, if no adverse claim shall have been filed, it shall be the duty of the surveyor general, upon application of the party, to survey the premises and make a plat thereof indorsed with his approval, designating the number and description of the location, the value of the labor and improvements and the character of the vein exposed, and upon the payment to the proper officer of $5 per acre the register of the land office shall submit to the General Land Office said plat, survey and description and a patent shall issue for the same thereupon, and the surveyor general shall receive for such service such compensation as is allowed by law with mileage not to exceed at legal rates the amount chargeable from the county seat of the county in which the claim may be situated to the said claim

Sec 4 And be it further enacted That when such location and entry of a mine shall be upon unsurveyed lands it shall and may be lawful after the extension thereto of public surveys to adjust the surveys to the limits of the premises according to the location and possession and plat aforesaid and the surveyor general may, in extending the surveys, vary the same from a rectangular form to suit the circumstances of the country and the local rules, laws and customs of miners Provided, That no location hereafter made shall exceed 300 feet in length along the vein for each locator, with an additional claim for discovery to the discoverer, with the right to follow such vein to any depth with all its dips, variations and angles, together with a reasonable quantity of surface for the convenient working of the same as fixed by local rules

Sec 5 And be it further enacted That the President of the United States be, and is hereby authorized to establish additional land districts and to appoint the necessary officers under existing laws, wherever he may deem the same necessary for the public convenience in executing the provisions of this act.

Sec 6 And be it further enacted, That whenever adverse claimants to any mine located and claimed as aforesaid shall appear, before the approval of the survey, as provided in the third section of this act, all proceedings shall be stayed until a final settlement and adjudication in the courts of competent jurisdiction of the rights of possession to such claim, when a patent may issue as in other cases

Sec 7 And be it further enacted, That whenever, prior to the passage of this Act, upon the lands heretofore designated as mineral lands which have been excluded from survey and sale there have been homesteads made by citizens of the United States or persons who have declared their intention to become citizens, which homesteads have been made, improved, and used for agricultural purposes, and upon which there have been no valuable mines of gold, silver, cinnabar or copper, discovered, and which are properly agricultural lands, the said settlers or owners of such homesteads shall have the right of preemption thereto, and shall be entitled to purchase the same at the price of $1 25 per acre, and in quantity not to exceed 160 acres, and said parties may avail themselves of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May 20, 1862, entitled "An Act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain, an Acts amendatory thereto

Sec. 8 And be it further enacted That upon the survey of the lands aforesaid, the Secretary of the Interior may designate and set apart such portions of the said lands as are clearly agricultural lands, which lands thereafter be subject to preemption and sale as other public lands of the United States, and subject to all the laws and regulations applicable to the same

Sec 9 And be it further enacted, That whenever, by priority of possession rights to the use of water for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, have vested and accrued, and the same are recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and the decisions of courts, the possessors and owners of such vested rights shall be maintained and protected in the same and the right of way for the construction of ditches and canals for the purposes aforesaid is hereby acknowledged and confirmed Provided however, That whenever after the passage of this act any person or persons shall in the construction of any ditch or canal injure or damage the possession of any settler of the public domain the party committing such injury or damage shall be liable to the party injured for such injury or damage

Sec 10 And be it further enacted That the right of way for the reconstruction of highways over public lands not reserved for public uses is hereby granted

Sec 11 And be it further enacted That as a further condition of sale, in the absence of necessary legislation by Congress, the local Legislature of any State or Territory may provide rules for working mines, involving easements, drainage and other necessary means for their complete development, and these conditions shall be fully expressed in the patent.

The New Hampshire Gold—The gold quartz recently found at Bath and Lisbon, N. H has been made the basis of a big joint stock company with $200 000 capital The principal owners live in Hartford, Samuel Hubbard, of that city is president; and though no machinery has been set at work upon the rock, and its probable value ascertained only by an assay of small quantities the shares are being peddled around the country—whence we infer the original proprietors expect to make more money in that way than in working the mine which is quite likely to be a wise conclusion Some specimens of the rock we have seen are certainly very remarkable gold quartz and the assays report at the rate of from $300 to $900 per ton But the real question is how much there is of such rock and how profitably it can be worked foot by foot and ton by ton? This can only be answered by much more labor and experience than has yet been given to it—Springfield (Mass) Republican

The Washington Republican having stated that Speaker Colfax did not suggest session of Congress after the assassination of President Lincoln the speaker writes to the Republican that he suggested an extra session to President Lincoln [illegible] promised to telegraph him at San Francisco if it should be called and that he also suggested it to President Johnson within a day or two after Mr Lincoln's death, and made arrangements to return from his trip across the continent at any time when such session should be called That Speaker Colfax thought an extra session necessary last fall, and suggested and expected it seems to be beyond doubt

Indictment Under the Civil Rights Bill—The Grand Jury of the United States District Court at Baltimore Md have indicted two Justices of the Peace for violating the act of Congress known as the Civil Rights Bill by refusing to receive the evidence of colored persons in cases in which white persons were interested These are the first cases in that State, under the act referred to but other cases are to brought to the attention of the Grand Jury

Shenandoah Valley—The mills and barns that were burned throughout the Shenandoah Valley during the war are being rebuilt and will generally be done in season for the coming crops

Political Speculations—The correspondent of the Sacramento [illegible] at New York writes under date of June [illegible] as follows

There never was a [illegible] political game of [illegible] the Democratic press of New York [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Secretary of State [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] same authority is [illegible] [illegible] has long circulated [illegible] through Jungle [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] lings and turning [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that Raymond remarked [illegible] very early in the Presidential career of the present Chief Magistrate [illegible] intended his intention not to adopt his policy [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] terms he could with the incumbent of the Presidential chair His subsequent course would seem to confirm this as having been his resolve and very shrewdly he has followed it out He is now accredited as the counsel which has modified the policy of Congress in its relations with the President at the same time that he is charged with motives no less unfriendly to the latter and not a whit less ominous to the cause of reconstruction as it is held by the Democratic party and the South, than the bitterest radical The National Intelligencer in an article of a day or two since, reviewing Raymond's recent letter in the Times heaps unmeasured abuse on its author whom it accuses of apostasy renegadism etc The Herald of this day [illegible] Raymond's course the guiding hand of Secretary Seward and the complicity in the plan [illegible] of the President by withholding the action of Congress on the Admission bill Assuming that President Johnson would certainly veto the bill the Herald says Congress will not give him the opportunity Besides gagging the President, the alleged device enables the Republicans to go into the canvass with the pretense that the Southern States will be admitted as soon as the amendment is ratified when in fact the radicals intend nothing of the kind The reported bill which they decide not to drop but to postpone prescribes the conditions of admission and at the next session after the elections are over and it can be done without hazard they propose to pass either it or an equivalent

In regard to the proposed constitutional amendment the Democratic press sees an African in the enclosure not skulking but undisguised and unmistakable Says the World "The proposed amendment has negro suffrage concealed in its belly like the trickish Greeks in the belly of the Trojan horse" If it were to be ratified it thinks there can be no doubt the Southern States would adopt negro suffrage rather than lose a third of their representatives But it will not be ratified says the editor, because neither Kentucky Maryland or Delaware are in favor of the amendment The Republicans hope of course that the States not excluded from Congress will adopt it at once and rely upon Arkansas and Tennessee to make up the required two thirds

Pennsylvania—Colonel John W Forney has taken the stump in Pennsylvania for the Senate The canvass begins now as the coming election will return the members of the Legislature which is to choose a successor to Cowan The candidates mentioned are Andrew G Curtin, the present Governor Simon Cameron Galusha A Grow Thomas Williams William D Kelley Morton McMichael and John W Forney Colonel Forney made a speech in Lebanon (Pa ) in which he defined his position in the following terms

"I have you will perceive, spoken frankly and plainly—indeed my experience at the National Capital during the rebellion has taught me the value of frankness and more than all the utter worthlessness of what is popularly called conservatism I have seen the rebellion in its best and its worst phases There were intervals when I was ready to assist in the adoption of the most forgiving measures There was a time—nearly four years ago—when I looked to Jefferson Davis himself as the great pacificator, believing that he spoke sincerely when he said he had reluctantly left the Senate, and that he was a follower instead of a leader But, however painful the admission may be, the belief has become an unalterable conviction that the spirit born of human slavery will require a long time for its extirpation, and that every proffer of pardon and every concession of principle is misunderstood by the leaders of the late rebellion The fate of Lincoln, in the very odor of sanctity, in the hour when he was disposed to forgive and forget everything but his duty to his country was a lesson so awful that it only required the failure of Andrew Johnson's inexplicable effort to propitiate the same savage instincts, to intensify the warning With this view I have believed it right to conceal nothing of my own sentiments, and as I am alone responsible I am prepared for the consequences I think all candidates for representative positions should be equally candid The entire Union delegation in Congress have solidly voted for all the radical measures, and I believe their actions will be supported and sustained at the ballot box My name having been suggested as a candidate for the United States Senate at the close of the term which expires on the 4th of March, 1867, it is proper that my opinions should be known, and I think every aspirant for the same high honor should be called upon explicitly to define his own position I am vain enough to believe that I am qualified to discharge the duties of a Senator from Pennsylvania, and I have been construed by journalists and official relations to mingle in most of the exciting scenes of the National Capital, from the period when James Buchanan attempted to make Kansas a slave State down to the present hour, Whether I have been faithful to principle fearless in my opposition to treachery in my former party or in persistent and unshaken antagonism to the rebellion which succeeded that treachery—whether I have steadfastly maintained the good fight in the dark complications recently developed—it is for the people who have the matter in charge to decide"

How is This—A week or two since the late United States Collector of the city of New York Mr Preston King, was charged with having been the murderer of Mrs Surratt He it was, so ran the statement, who acted as janitor at the Presidential Mansion on the day of her execution, and prevented any access to the Executive by those who desired to obtain a reprieve The story is circumstantial in its details and winds up with the declaration that Mr King drowned himself on account of that transaction We have another story just out that the Secretary of War is alone responsible for the order that placed Jeff Davis in irons A good many people have been laboring under the impression that Mr Andrew Johnson was the official by whose command these acts were performed and they were led to that belief by the declarations of the President that as Mercy had been slain we must be careful that Justice be not also slain" and that "treason must be made odious," and the "leaders of the rebellion punished The truth of history should be vindicated and these matters deserve to be placed correctly on the record Who is responsible for the other victims who suffered on the scaffold along with the one mentioned and who is it that keeps Dr Mudd and two or three more at the Dry Tortugas?—St Louis Democrat, June 25th

Nap and Max—A letter dated Paris, June 7th received in Washington, says the steamer which is about to leave St Nazaire for Mexico will carry out an autograph letter from the Emperor Napoleon III to the Emperor Maximilian according to what is affirmed to me

"The first of the two sovereigns demands that Mexican Custom Houses shall be placed under French administration as a guarantee for the Mexican loans converted into three per cents It is also stated that in default of the acceptance of this proposal by the Mexican Government the French will be immediately recalled If on the contrary an arrangement shall be made between the two allied Governments the forms announced for the departure of the troops will be maintained

Texas Election Returns—A Galveston dispatch of June 26th says

The Republican vote is larger than was anticipated It will probably be one third of the whole vote and when the western and central counties are heard from Travis county the seat of Government excepting two precincts to be heard from gives Throckmorton 109 Pease 7, Representative Hancock Conservative 210 and Gray Republican 212 The Conservative vote is solid for the union ticket while the Republican vote is against them

She Knows the Men—This is the latest from Fanny Fern addressed to the ladies "Show but a strip of white stockings above your boot or a bit of embroidered skirt, or a balmoral, and you may lead a man by the nose I have positively seen gentlemen stand at the corners eagerly bobbing their heads this way and that to catch a sight of the gaiter boots as they alighted from the various omnibuses Not ally young men either but gray headed old rodgers who had grandpa written all over them
